

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES RIGHTS POLICY

Revelstoke Community Forest Corporation (RCFC)

Revelstoke Community Forest Corporation (RCFC) recognizes the rights, interests, and traditional knowledge of Indigenous Peoples. RCFC is committed to respectful and meaningful consultation with Indigenous Peoples whose rights may be affected by our forest management activities within Tree Farm Licence 56.

RCFC will maintain a formal program that includes:

- Identification of Indigenous Peoples whose traditional territories, rights, or interests may be affected by our operations, using publicly available maps, government resources, and Indigenous community input;
- Consultation processes based on our current Forest Stewardship Plan and any requirements outlined by the Government of British Columbia;
- Recognition of the framework of Indigenous rights, including:
 - The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP),
 - Applicable federal and provincial laws and regulations, and
 - Treaties, agreements, and other constructive arrangements between Indigenous Peoples and the Crown;
- Opportunity for agreements between RCFC and Indigenous communities with unceded traditional territories that overlap with our operating area, including mechanisms for engagement and consultation;
- Training for RCFC staff and contractors to understand and uphold our responsibilities under this policy and Objective 8 of the SFI Forest Management Standard.

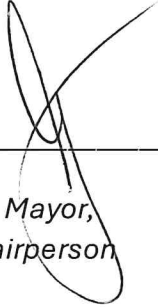

RCFC is committed to transparency and accountability. This policy is publicly available on our website and upon request.
